TIPS AND LISTS
FOR DORM LIVING

GUIDE

College Move-In Is Approaching!

Your student is preparing to leave home to embark on an exciting new chapter of their lives! What an accomplishment.

College is an incredible time of growth and independence, but it can also be a bit daunting at first. This will be your student's first time living on their own, and that's an adjustment for both of you.

Dorm living can be fun but it also comes with challenges. Does your student understand how to effectively share their space with a roommate? Do they know how to handle conflict or who to ask for help when needed? Having a comfortable living space will be key to decompressing after a long day of new classes, new friends and new experiences.

We're sharing our favorite dorm living tips and tricks to help your student create a home away from home.

Help them prepare for this new chapter in their lives by making sure they have everything they need for a happy and successful first year!

School Supplies

The basics for academic success

Study Tips:

- 1 Find a few good places to study.
Your dorm room shouldn't be the only option.
- 2 Make sure to have all the books and supplies needed.
Having all resources is important for effective studying.
- 3 Use a planner and put EVERYTHING in it.
Assignments, exam dates, study hours, social activities, etc.
- 4 Break big projects into smaller pieces and schedule them out ahead of time.
You'll avoid being overwhelmed at the last minute.
- 5 Hang around with people who study.
It's easier to get motivated and stay on track.
- 6 Take good notes and review them regularly.
It'll save time when studying for a test.
- 7 Go to professors' office hours.
Even if you don't need help, they'll notice the effort.
- 8 Be proactive if you need extra help.
Seek out tutoring so you don't fall behind.

Notebooks

Starting out with a color coding system is a great way to stay organized.

Water Bottle

Save money and stay hydrated during the day.

Pens

Comfortable, good quality pens for efficient note-taking.

Backpack

The USB charging port will be a life-saver for busy days.

Academic Planner

Stay on top of exams, assignments, studying and socializing.

Laptop

For studying on the go.

Bedding and Bath

Everything they need to unwind after a long day

Falling asleep in a campus residence hall can be like trying to nap at a football game. No matter how good your student's sleep habits are when they're home, in college, constant interruptions, noise from the hallway and roommates turning on lights at odd hours can make it hard to catch zzz's.

Lack of sleep has a huge impact on overall health and wellbeing and it's crucial that your college student get enough rest!

Tips for Deep Sleep

- 1 Stick to a regular sleep schedule.
- 2 Sleep in a dark room.
- 3 Stop using screens two hours before bed.
- 4 Exercise regularly and eat healthy food.

OUR TOP PICKS

Cooling Mattress Topper

Many residence halls don't have air conditioning.

Pillows

Ensure they have a comfy place to rest their head at night!

Shower Caddy

Keep things organized, accessible, and dry.

Sheet Sets

Pick up at least two sets for when the laundry has to wait a few days.

Quick-Dry Bath Towels

Quick-dry bath towels save your student time and space.

Lightweight Comforter

Lightweight comforters are great all year-round.

Grocery Shopping 101

8 tips to help your student eat well on a budget

- 1 Scout out the best place(s) to shop.
Find a store that's convenient with good prices and a good selection.
- 2 Get a store discount card.
Major grocery stores offer lower prices to loyalty card holders.
- 3 Buy store brands.
Store brand items are the same product for less.
- 4 Understand value.
Cheaper isn't always better when it comes to quality ingredients.
- 5 Do the math.
It can be smart to buy in bulk; don't pay for extra packaging!
- 6 Balance cost vs. convenience.
Sometimes you have to cook just a little to save a lot.
- 7 Use a blender.
Blending produce is a quick way to get lot of nutrients.
- 8 Focus on healthy basics.
These products should be the foundation of any meal.

Cleaning

Tips and tricks for keeping their living space tidy

Tips for Keeping Their Dorm Room Spotless:

- 1 Set up a weekly cleaning schedule.
This keeps the mess more manageable.
- 2 Keep cleaning supplies readily available.
This way you're more likely to clean!
- 3 Take out trash regularly.
Letting things pile up only makes it more of a chore.
- 4 Clean up spills and messes immediately.
Spilled juice gets harder to clean over time and can attract bugs.
- 5 Use Google to find cleaning tutorials.
There are solutions online for every cleaning challenge.
- 6 Give everything a place.
Avoid clutter by creating a place for all your items.
- 7 Make the bed as soon as they wake up.
A made bed will make their dorm room look less cluttered instantly.
- 8 Create a drop-zone.
Having a place for shoes, phones, etc. will avoid doorway clutter.

Refillable Surface Disinfectant

Antibacterial, and eco-friendly? Yes, please.

Dish Soap

A multi-use product to clean dinnerware, treat stains, and more.

4-in-1 Vacuum

Get rid of crumbs and dust bunnies!

Air Purifier

Socializing

Get excited to make new friends!

Tips for Making New Friends:

- 1 Take things one step at a time.
Great friendships aren't built overnight.
- 2 Bring an activity or game you enjoy.
Invite people over to play!
- 3 Put on-campus events in your planner.
You'll meet people with similar interests.
- 4 Introduce yourself to everyone!
You never know who you'll hit it off with.
- 5 Keep your dorm room door open.
So that people can stop in and say hi.
- 6 Keep an open mind and an optimistic attitude.
You can find new friends anywhere!

Disposable Camera

For making memories.

Support a Hobby

Sharing an activity is a great way to make friends.

Mini Projector

Make any space a movie theater or gaming room!

Fold-Down Guest Chaise

An extra seat or bed that doesn't take up too much space.

Spikeball

A compact game full of outdoor fun!

Tips to Reduce Stress:

- 1 Make a study schedule (with study breaks).
Study breaks give the brain time to rest and recharge.
- 2 Stay hydrated.
Dehydration causes fatigue, headaches, and difficulty focusing.
- 3 Nourish the body and brain.
The body needs fuel to function correctly.
- 4 Attend to self-care.
Taking time for yourself is necessary.
- 5 Focus on sleep quantity and quality.
Sleep is the key to our minds and bodies functioning correctly.
- 6 Try out the school's mental health services.
They want to help with problems big or small.
- 7 Take a break from devices.
Constant screentime is exhausting.
- 8 Practice deep breathing or meditation.
Focusing on breathing can calm the mind.
- 9 Find a hobby that you love.
Engaging in a hobby can help decompress and clear the mind.

In the midst of the hustle and bustle of preparing for college, make room for some quality family time, too. Whether exploring their new college town, planning a nostalgic family activity, or cooking dinner together, it's a chance to bond and remind them that you'll always be just a phone call away whenever they need you.

Squeeze in extra hugs whenever appropriate and have faith that you've done everything needed to prepare them for this new adventure!
